

Orkney Heritage Society

Linklater Prize

Entry Form

- This competition is open to anyone living in Orkney between the ages of 15 and 18
- Entries can be either a short story or a poem
- Orkney dialect is welcomed (but not essential)

The theme is the colours of Orkney

This is open to your own interpretation. Does it mean the colour of Orkney's light, a treasured memory of a favourite toy, or a riotous garden filled with colour? That's up to you to decide.

Prizes:

- Winners will be published online on the Orkney Heritage Society's website, and may also appear in the Society's newsletter.
- First Prize: £50
- Second Prize: £40
- Third Prize: £30

Terms & Conditions:

- Entries must be accompanied by this application form and must be received by 16th November 2022. Entries are free.
- Short stories must be between 400 words and 1,000 words in length. The title is not included in the word count.
- Poetry should be no more than 40 lines in length.
- All entries are judged anonymously. Please do not include your name or any other identifiers or as the file name on your entry, as this will result in disqualification.
